TO GIVE STREET-CAR MEN A SUNDAY REST. A peution has been sent to the officers and directors of the street railroad companies of New York, asking that, except in cases of necessity, the employes of the roads have one day of rest in seven, and that this be so distributed as to secure to every man the half of every Sunday or the whole of every alternate Sunday. The reasons urged are the physical, in-tellectual, social and moral necessity of a weekly rest, the fact that the work of the employes is especially exacting, that such a change would make them better workmen, and that they ought to have the privilege of the religious observance of the day. The petition was circulated by the New-York Sabbath Committee, of which Henry A. Oakley is chairman, W. W. Atterbury is secretary, and A. G. Agnew, Gerard Beekman, Robert Lenox Belknap, William A. Booth, Robert Carter, William A. Cauldwell, Joseph H. Chapman, Theodore Gilman, W. W. Hoppin, Jr., J. Pierpont Morgan, John E. Parsons, Dr. D. B. St. John Roose, John Noble Stearns, Frederic Sturges and Willam Alexander Smith are members. Among the other signers are Archbishop Corrigan, Bishop Potter, the Rev. Dr. Howard Crosby, Morgan Dix, John Hall, Gaston Septier, Arthur Brooks, C. C. Tiffany, John W. Brown, Robert Collyer, ex-President Cleveland, Mavor Grant, William E. Dodge, John Sloane, C. N. Elliss, Morris K. Jesup, John D. Rockefeller, Clinton B. Fisk, Everett P. Wheeler, John M. Cornell, Charles Lanier, Leonard D. White, Austin Abbott, Theron G. Strong and M. S. Isaacs.

COME TO BUY ANOTHER WAR-SHIP. Admiral Howard M. Patterson, appointed to be the Naval Constructor of the (Legitime) Haytian Navy two months ago, who went down on the steamer Alvo to Port au Prince, returned yester day. He said that he was on his way to Washington to consult with Haytian Minister Preston relative to the purchase of another war vessel. This ald have to be done secretly, he said, owing to the non-recognition of any Government at Hayti by the United States, pending the insurrection. The Admiral was in fatigue uniform, similar to the service dress of officers of the United States Navy.

He said that he found the Haytian war vessels in fair condition only, and that their bottoms were foul with seaweed and barnacles. He would not be able to do anything with them until the end of the insurrection, which would be less than three months bance. They consist of the Dessalines, the Toulssant of Caverture, the Panama, the Defence, and Eve transports. Legitime, the Admiral said, was gradually get-ting the better of Hyppolite, and his forces were within forty miles of Cape Haytien. Five hundred men were landed at St. Marc, and it had been strengthened with guns, as had also the pass behind the town. Gonaives was practically in the hands of Legitime.

LUNCHEON OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB. ITS TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY SUCCESSFULLY CELEBRATED.

The annual luncheon of the Brooklyn Woman's Club took place yesterday afternoon in the Johnston Build-ing. The occasion was of special interest, because it was the twentieth anniversary of the formation of the There was a large attendance, nearly one hundred members and guests being present. Sorosis, which is one year the senior of the Woman's Club, was represented by Mrs. Ella Dietz Clymer, its president. Among the other guests were Mrs. Sarah K. Lippincott (Grace Greenwood), Mrs. E. P. Terhune

(Marion Harland) and Mrs. Kate Upson Clark.
Mrs. Amelia K. Wing, the president of the club, presided at the luncheon, and performed her duties with tact and gracefulness. The responses to toasts were numerous and felicitous. Mrs. Truman J. Backus spoke on the "Unification of Woman's Work." Mrs. Anna C. Field was introduced as the Mother of the Club, but she modestly disclaimed the honor in favor of Mrs. Burleigh, and read a comprehensive ummary of the work laid out for the club twenty years ago. Mrs. Bergen spoke on "Woman's Smiles, and Mrs. Laura C. Holloway on "The Seidl Club."

A poem by Mrs. Glover followed, and then Mrs.
Cornella Shepherd gave a resume of the excellent work done by the New-York League of Unitarian Women. Mrs. Leavitt spoke on "Dual Feasts." Mrs. Olive Thorne Miller read a graceful poem, entitled Whims," written by Mrs. Marshall, a member of the club, who is an invalid. Mrs. Mary E. Craigle re-sponded in a charming manner to the toast, "Out sponded in a charming manner to the toast, "Our Husbands." She was followed by Mrs. Safford, who read a poem on "A Dream of the Millennium." Then Mrs. Clymer spoke in behalf of Sorosis, and brief but happy addresses were made by Mrs. Lappincott and Mrs. Terhune.

There was music at intervals in the course of the speech-making, which occupied about three hours. The gathering was pronounced one of the most successful in the history of the club, and was thoroughly enjoyed by every one present.

12. 1836, under orders to Join the Asiatic Station. She sailed by the way of the Mediterranean and the Snez Canal. After craising about, touching at many ports in India and various Islands, she went to China. She received orders to return to New-York by way of the Snez Canal to undergo repairs and sailed for home on Angust 9, and when going through the Inland Sea she broke her shaft and put into Nagasaki. Here her propeller was removed and put on deck, and her propeller well closed up, to improve her sailing qualities, when, much to the astonishment of all naval men, instead of sending her to the nearest home port, San Francisco, Secretary Whitney ordered her to return by way of Cape Horn.

She sailed from Nagasaki on September 5, and reached Honolulu on October 15. Here she obtained some new spars, but was unsuccessful in gettling new sails, and had to patch up the old ones. She sailed again on November 10, and the next heard from her was when she spoke an English steamer north of Cuba and obtained some fresh provisions. A few days later, on April 1, she put into St. Thomas.

The officers of the Brooklyn are: Capiain Byron Wilson, commanding: Beutenant-commander, Thomas Perry: Beutenants, Eugene D. F. Heald, William H. H. Southerland, Charles J. Badger and Frank H. GRAND STREET STORE:

Grand & Chrystie Sta,

THE BOOK OF OPEN-AIR SPORTS, octave, 500 pages. Illustrated. The standard authority in American open-air amusements. Rules for sailing, swimming, ball playing, shooting, horse-back riding, &c., &a., in full. $1 per copy. Published by The Tribune, New York. Entertaining and universally complimented by the Press.

The Wankenphast Shoes we formerly sold at $7 were so good that many men willingly bought them, because their equal was nowhere sold for less. Now at $5.50 for these Waukenphasts and $1 to $1.50 off the price of every other shoe we handle our sales ought to double and quadruple. That's just why we put them so low. We want more shoe customers; for shoe customers mean customers for Hats, Furnishings and Clothes.

SHIRTS. Cheap ones aboundgood shirts at low prices less plentiful. Ours at 50, 70 and 90 cents, unlaundered-20 cents more if laundered, contain points of advantage that any good housewife will appreciate. Send or write for a sample shirt. The same might be said of night shirts; plain, 75 cents and $1; fancy, 60 cents, 75 cents and $1.

NECKWEAR. Newest English and American designs. The range of 50cent Scarfs was never so great.

CLOTHING is implied, whatever else is described. The best of every kind (except the poor kind), and more kinds than we need advertise or you would read of. In either of these two stores a man or boy may be perfectly clothed from top to toe.
